

Beware Mr. Officer, Tread Carefully!

Novel Chapter 66 To 70

Chapter 66: Weren't You Holding My Hand Just Now?

Jian Qi found it funny being dragged by Tang Jinyu. "What are you doing?"

"We are going to the hospital right now!" Tang Jinyu glared at her. "How can you not know that you have been drugged..."

"Qiqi... Jian Qi..." Chu Yuhan's voice stopped Tang Jinyu.

Tang Jinyu knew that something was wrong. He wanted to drag Jian Qi along and leave, but instead she dragged him to a corner.

"You—" Jian Qi immediately covered his mouth before he could say anything.

"Qiqi? Where are you, Jian Qi? Jian Qi!"

Chu Yuhan's voice that was initially gentle became more and more frustrated.

Tang Jinyu's face darkened. He pulled her hand away from his mouth, trying to drag her along so that they could leave, but Jian Qi held onto his hand and ran in the opposite direction to follow after Chu Yuhan.

Chu Yuhan stopped at the gate and looked around. She stomped the ground in frustration.

'How could I let her run away!'

Just as she was about to leave, she suddenly felt that something was off, she felt as if her body was burning up and she was getting slightly dizzy.

"Where is the person you talked about?" A plump guy walked up to her.

Chu Yuhan shook her head trying to keep herself awake.

"I'm sorry Mr. Chen. She ran away. We can do this again next time. I'm in a hurry, I'll need to leave first..." Chu Yuhan wanted to leave after saying so.

“Don’t leave. Since she’s not around, why not you accompany me instead. Isn’t it the same? Don’t you want to be an actress? Accompany me tonight and I’ll have them bring you to see the crew tomorrow...” The man said while he tried to grab her by her hips.

Chu Yuhan pushed him away but she realized that she did not have the strength to do so.

The man smiled deviantly. “Let’s go...”

“Let go of me...” Chu Yuhan tried to push him away but she had lost all her strength, and she even had to lean on the man for support.

She was going to bring Jian Qi to him instead of herself. How could she stand being seen together with a disgusting man like this.

Chu Yuhan wanted to run, but she was instantly pulled back by the man. He dragged her to the car and they immediately left.

Tang Jinyu walked out of the corner and gazed at Jian Qi. “You knew.”

“Knew what?” Jian Qi asked.

“That she tried to drug you.”

“No. I didn’t know anything. I just learned a lesson and knew that she was up to no good the moment she tried to apologize.”

Tang Jinyu instantly knew that this girl had learned much more than just one lesson when he saw that she was able to keep calm.

“Were you worried about me when you said that I need to go to the hospital?” Jian Qi smirked.

Tang Jinyu did not respond. He turned around and left.

“Where are you going?” Jian Qi followed him with a bright smile.

“Leave me alone!”

“Weren’t you holding my hand just now? Now that you have taken advantage of me, are you going to just ignore me?” Jian Qi made a face, as if she had been wronged.

“I’m sad.”

Tang Jinyu huffed in response, ignored her and walked away.

“We’ll meet again real soon, trust me!”

It would be better if they did not meet again, because it seemed that every time they met, that woman would surely have some crazy ideas.

Chapter 67: Hopefully She Will Bring Another Surprise Tomorrow

Tang Jinyu returned home and saw a man, who was wearing a military uniform, sitting on the sofa in his living room.

The man turned around as soon as he heard footsteps.

“Teacher? Why are you here?” Tang Jinyu smiled and walked toward the man.

“It’s not easy to see you nowadays!” The man smiled and replied.

“Don’t tease me, Teacher.”

“Okay, okay. Have a seat.”

“What brings u here this evening?”

Deng Guofeng passed him a document. “These are the names for the physical preliminary test tomorrow. It will determine the finalists who are going to enroll in the National Defense Academy. I understand that you are on a break these days, would you have time to drop by and have a look?”

Tang Jinyu took the document from him. “You came all the way at this hour to see me, you must have something else on your mind.”

“Can’t you just act stupid for once?”

“Well, you are a busy man so it must be something important for you to come all the way here.” Tang Jinyu smiled as he opened the document.

Deng Guofeng looked at him with his eyes filled with satisfaction and appreciation.

Tang Jinyu was a student that he was very fond of, and he was very proud of him.

“I asked them to do some research today. There are a few potential candidates that you can pay more attention to.”

Tang Jinyu smiled as he looked at the resume of each candidate. They all had very interesting backgrounds.

He put down a few resumes, and glanced at the last two name lists.

There were their names, gender, age and the school they went to.

The order of the names were arranged according to their college examination grades in descending order. He took a quick glance and stopped at the first name on the name list.

“This?” He pointed at the first name and stared at Deng Guofeng in surprise.

Deng Guofeng smiled. “This came as a surprise to us too. You must know that our school picks candidates based on their college examination results, then they have to pass the physical test tomorrow to determine whether they can join us. Even though this student is from Bolin High School and is an art stream student, her results are astounding. Not only that, she applied to enroll in the National Defense Academy, so there is no reason for her to not be in the list.”

“That’s not what I meant, Teacher...” Tang Jinyu shook his head, and smiled.

He finally realized what she meant earlier that night!

He had no idea that her results were so excellent!

“This result is pretty good.” Tang Jinyu’s lips twitched as he said so.

Deng Guofeng smiled. He did not know what Tang Jinyu was actually thinking about. "Indeed, top candidate this year!"

Deng Guofeng saw Tang Jinyu staring persistently at the name on top, and he smiled and said, "It's just another student but you seem really surprised about it? Even though Bolin High School does have many great candidates, as an art stream student, she might struggle to pass tomorrow's physical test..."

"Remember you told me that we cannot judge a person according to their status?"

Deng Guofeng was surprised. "You trying to tease me now, huh? Indeed, she surprised everyone with that extraordinary result. Well, I do hope that she will surprise us all tomorrow!"

"Have you checked her background before?" Tang Jinyu asked.

"Yes. I ordered someone to investigate her after the results were out, she did not cheat. In fact, on the examination day itself, she was the first student to leave the hall. She is rather famous nowadays, hence we are not sure why she would apply to the National Defense Academy."

Tang Jinyu expected them to have found information similar to the ones given by Feng Yi.

"Alright. It's getting late, you should go get some rest and be there earlier tomorrow." Deng Guofeng smiled as he stood up. "I'll take my leave now."

Tang Jinyu put down the documents. "Let me show you out."

After Deng Guofeng left, Tang Jinyu went back into his house and glanced at the documents. He picked up his phone and called someone. "Feng Yi, I need you to investigate a few people for me..."

Chapter 68: Group Number 5 Examiner, Tang Jinyu

Jian Qi looked around and saw many people in the school field.

Some time later, a group of guys wearing outfits with military camouflage prints walked to the field through the school gate.

They had a strong aura as if there was BGM following their grand entrance. Everyone looked at them, and some of the students were stunned by their appearance.

Some people in the crowd gasped, while some muttered, “Dashing!”

Jian Qi glanced toward the group of guys and her eyes stopped at the man who was walking in front of the group. Her eyebrows lifted at the sight of him, and the corner of her lips twitched upward.

‘Yo, didn’t think that we would meet again so soon.’

She thought that they would only meet in another few months’ time!

They were all wearing the same attire with no indication of their ranking, but being at the front of the group must mean that he was the head of something.

Tang Jinyu quickly noticed that someone was staring at him. He looked around and made eye contact with her.

Jian Qi smirked. She raised her hand and casually waved at him.

Tang Jinyu ignored her and looked away. He walked off to the empty field together with the rest of the group.

At the empty field, the group that had just entered stood in an orderly fashion. Feng Yi then took out a whistle and blew on it. “Gather around! The assessment will start soon!”

Jian Qi stood up and walked over.

“Line up according to the numbers in your hand!” Feng Yi shouted. He frowned when everyone seemed to be lost as they were wandering around aimlessly. “I’ll give you one minute, you’re out if you are not in your positions by then!”

“Bunch of young masters and misses!” The guy called Crocodile spat.

Comrade Lightning smiled. “Our boss was the one who accepted this job, we don’t have a choice!”

Tang Jinyu glanced at the both of them, and they immediately shut up, putting on a serious face.

Everyone scrambled about hurriedly and finally found their spots. However, two of the candidates were not able to find where they were supposed to be.

“Time’s up!” Feng Yi said and glanced over at the two candidates. “You two can leave now!”

The two candidates appeared somewhat upset.

“Why should we?! The assessment hasn’t even started yet, what gives you the right to eliminate us now?!”

“Right. My fitness scores were in the top three in my previous school. If I can’t do it, everyone here won’t be able to do it either!” One of the candidates refuted and stared at Feng Yi.

Feng Yi glanced at the boy and sneered. “When I blew the whistle, the first assessment had already started. The two of you were not able to do what you were supposed to do in one minute, yet you still have the audacity to tell me that your physique is good?”

“Who do you think you are? Leave, now!” He growled. “Congratulations to the rest of you nine hundred and seventy three candidates left that have not been eliminated in such an easy assessment. Only three hundred or less of you will remain by the end of the day!”

“Now we’ll divide you into groups. First group, No. 1 to 200; second group, No. 201 to 400; third group, 401...”

“Now that you’re all in groups, first group on my lead!”

Crocodile moved forward. ” Second group with me.”

Lightning instructed, “Third group please...”

“ ... ”

Everyone was divided into five groups for the assessment.

Jian Qi arrived late, hence she got No. 801.

That was the first number in group five, and the examiner in the group was coincidentally Tang Jinyu!

Chapter 69: Assessment result

Everyone in front of Jian Qi had left accordingly, now she was the one standing in front.

Tang Jinyu did not look her way as he glanced at the rest of the people in the field and said emotionlessly, "Everyone else follow me!"

Everyone else left in the field followed him. Some of the candidates were excited while Jian Qi remained calm.

"He's so hot..."

"Yes, he doesn't speak much too. Pretty sure he isn't as bad as the other examiners."

"I hope it will be easy."

Jian Qi heard the other candidates behind her talking about their examiner. She could not help but laugh to herself because she knew that he was going to be a pain in the ass*.

"First category, planks. Everyone prepare yourselves. Go!"

Everyone seemed confused when Tang Jinyu gave his orders. Nobody knew how many times or for how long they were supposed to do planking.

However, time was already ticking, the candidates dared not question him. They could only follow the instructions given to them.

As time passed by, some of the candidates could not take it anymore. Their bodies gave way and they slumped onto the ground. When they were about to continue, Tang Jinyu said, "You have been eliminated. Please leave."

Those who were eliminated were shocked.

As more time went by, more and more candidates failed to continue on, either due to weakened stamina, or not having the ability to do as many rounds.

After the first round, everyone knew that this examiner was no exception.

Half an hour later, Tang Jinyu looked at the candidates who were still planking and he saw Jian Qi.

He was surprised that she could endure for so long.

“Time’s up!” Tang Jinyu shouted.

Everyone stopped.

Fifty candidates had already been eliminated in the first round itself. That was when everyone realized that only the best of the best would pass this assessment.

“Second category, two hundred push-ups. Go!”

The second he finished his sentence, everyone started moving.

Jian Qi was initially fast, but she slowed down at the last few push-ups. It was as though she was tired.

Tang Jinyu noticed it as well, but he knew very well that she was doing it on purpose.

That serene look on her face told him that she was not tired at all.

Jian Qi only stood up after twenty people were done. She did the same thing for the rest of the assessment as well.

The candidates were getting more and more tired after every round of assessment.

In the end, group five was only left with forty candidates. It had the least number of candidates left among all the groups.

There were only two hundred and eighty three candidates left in total, it was even fewer than the academy's stipulated number of three hundred candidates.

Everyone gathered around after the assessment was over. "Congratulations to all of you that have passed the first round of assessment. Yes, that was only the first round," Feng Yi said.

Everyone was in disbelief. It was only the first round and they had already eliminated so many of the candidates. How many of them would be left in the end?

Tang Jinyu looked at the name list. The names from the day before were all still around, and their results were pretty good.

"We'll be looking forward to your upcoming performances!" Feng Yi said. He went back to his own group and left with the other examiners.

Jian Qi put on her mask and left the school field. As she passed by the faculty block she saw Feng Yi and the other examiners hanging out there.

She took a quick glance but did not see Tang Jinyu with them.

Lightning saw her and grabbed onto Feng Yi's hand. "Feng Yi, it's your goddess!"

Chapter 70: What are You Guys Doing?

"It really is her!" Crocodile's reaction was quick.

Feng Yi turned around out of curiosity. "Don't be stupid. Why would my goddess be here!"

"She was in group five previously. At first I thought that my eyes were deceiving me, but after looking at her for a while longer, it really is her. Now I know why our boss wants to be here too!" Lightning touched his chin and chuckled.

When he turned to look at Feng Yi, he realized that the guy was already running toward Jian Qi.

Feng Yi blocked her way and smiled. "Miss Jian..."

“Nice to meet you!” Jian Qi lifted her head and looked at him.

“Uhm...” Feng Yi stuttered as he did not know what to say.

“Where’s your boss?” Jian Qi took off her mask and smiled back at him.

“The boss left because he has something on, by the way... do you have time later?” Feng Yi asked with a smile on his face.

Jian Qi looked at the time. Coco was most probably going to arrive a bit later as it was only four o’clock, she should have a few hours free.

“Is there anything I can help you with?”

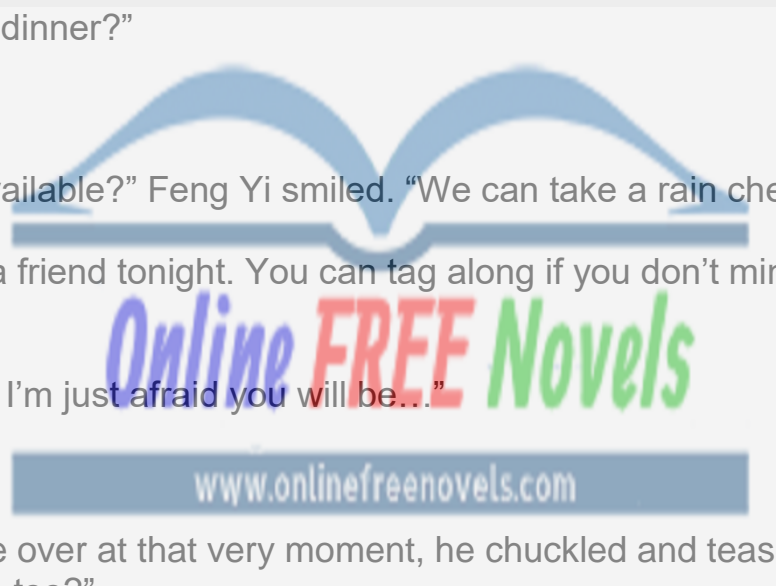

“Can I buy you dinner?”

“This...”

“Are you not available?” Feng Yi smiled. “We can take a rain check...”

“I am meeting a friend tonight. You can tag along if you don’t mind,” Jian Qi replied.

“Of course not, I’m just afraid you will be...”

Crocodile came over at that very moment, he chuckled and teased Feng Yi, “Can we all join too?”

Feng Yi wanted to kick these few light bulbs away. He was annoyed and stared at Crocodile.

“Sure,” Jian Qi did not mind at all.

These men looked fierce and cool a while ago. However, all of them had bright smiles on their faces at the moment, the stark contrast surprised other people around them.

Everyone’s attention was on the person wearing a black shirt and a cap, Jian Qi.

Some of them were discussing whether or not she was Jian Qi.

Jian Qi quickly turned her back on the crowd and put on her mask. She did not want to cause any trouble.

The guys understood what she was doing and quickly hovered around her to help block her from the crowd.

After mingling for a while, everyone got to know each other better as they were all rather sociable and were able to mix well together.

“Jian Qi, why did you decide to leave the entertainment industry and join the defense academy?” Lightning asked out of curiosity.

“Because...”

“What are you guys doing?” Tang Jinyu appeared from behind and asked before Jian Qi could reply.

Everyone turned around and stood on guard with his appearance.

Jian Qi turned around and raised an eyebrow at Tang Jinyu. She smiled cheekily and waved at him. “Hi...”

Tang Jinyu ignored her and walked toward Feng Yi and the guys. “Your mission is over, go back now!”

“Boss, Feng Yi will be buying us dinner later. Do you want to join us?” Crocodile said with a smile on his face.

“Why?” Tang Jinyu asked Feng Yi.

“He wants to buy his goddess dinner. We’re just tagging along for food.” Crocodile replied and earned a pinch from Lightning.

This dumbass. Did he want everyone to starve tonight? Why would he say that?

Tang Jinyu looked over at Jian Qi.

Jian Qi glanced at him and smiled with a wink.

“There will be extra training tonight. All of you, back to the group!” Tang Jinyu said frostily, seeing the unwilling expressions on their faces, he then continued on, “Fall in!”

Everyone stood up straight instantly.

“To your right, march!” Tang Jinyu commanded and all they could was begrudgingly follow his commands.

Jian Qi stood aside, with her arms folded around her chest as a playful smile appeared beneath her mask.

That night, she went for a lavish dinner with Coco. While, on the other hand, the guys who were supposed to be having dinner with her were lugging ten kilograms of weight, and running with it for fifteen kilometers.
